

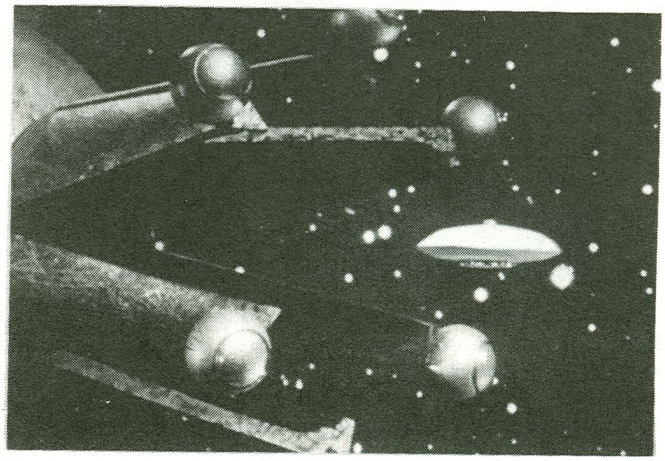
This series of photos shows the Jupiter 2 moving around the huge vessel and a view of it preparing to pull it inside.


One of the most interesting of the alien spacecraft from Lost In Space was The Derelict, from an early first season episode, it was so huge that it actually swallows up the Jupiter 2 in one of the most exciting special effects scenes of the series.